DECLARATION OF SCOTT D. MATTHEWS

SCOTT D. MATTHEWS, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, declares:

1. I am a member of the Indiana bar and associated with the law firm of Ice Miller in Indianapolis, Indiana. I am admitted pro hac vice in this lawsuit and represent Defendant Australian Gold, Inc.

2. Australian Gold's co-counsel is Francis J. Earley, a member of the New York bar and associated with Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo, P.C.

3. I make this Declaration based on personal knowledge in support of Defendant's motion under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37 and 45 to compel non-parties to (a) produce documents requested in the subpoena dated October 7, 2005 and (b) to pay Australian Gold its reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred in making this motion.

4. On October 7, 2005, Australian Gold served subpoenas on the four suppliers that it has disclosed as its source for the Australian Gold, Swedish Beauty and Caribbean Gold tanning lotions. Service of process was effected by hand delivery on all four suppliers. A true and correct copy of the subpoena served on _____ and the return of service is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

5. _____ response was due on or before October 21, 2005, but they failed to respond.

REDACTED

6. In an effort to avoid motion practice before the Court, Australian Gold has attempted to resolve this issue through means other than filing a motion to compel. On or about October 28, 2005, I placed a telephone call to _____, the contact at _____ provided by S&L Vitamins, at the telephone number provided by S&L Vitamins and left a voicemail message requesting _____ to contact me. _____ did not return that telephone call.

7. On October 28, 2005, I sent a letter to _____ and _____ demanding that they contact me by 5:00 p.m. on October 31, 2005. A true and correct copy of that letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. _____ and _____ failed to respond to that letter, and still have not responded to the subpoena. REDACTED

8. For the reasons set forth above and fully explained in the accompanying Memorandum of Law, I respectfully request that the Court grant the Defendant's motion to compel non-parties _____ to produce documents requested in the subpoena and pay Australian Gold its reasonable attorney fees and costs associated with filing this motion.

9. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
Executed on November 2, 2005.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C&D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A Party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoenas. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A Person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden,

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Re: S & L Vitamins, Inc. v. Australian Gold, Inc.

Dear:

Our law firm is legal counsel for Australian Gold, Inc. Our New York counsel sent you a federal subpoena on October 7, 2005 commanding you to produce certain documents related to your business dealings with S & L Vitamins, Inc., Body Source and Larry Sagarin. Your response was due on October 21, 2005. You have failed to respond to this subpoena and you have not contacted us to explain why your failure should be excused.

This letter shall serve as notice that we intend to file a motion to compel against you in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York seeking a court order compelling the immediate production of the documents which you are obligated to produce. We will also seek sanctions against you, including the attorney fees we have incurred, for having to compel your compliance with the subpoena. We will file the motion against you if you do not contact me by 5:00 p.m. on October 31, 2005 to make arrangements for the production of these documents.

Larry Sagarin has identified you as one of his suppliers of Australian Gold™, Swedish Beauty™ and Caribbean Gold™ tanning lotions. Thus, you possess documents which are evidence in our case against Mr. Sagarin. This information must not be discarded or destroyed. If you do so, we will bring a claim for spoliation of evidence against you before the federal judge.

We look forward to your timely response.

Sincerely,

ICE MILLER
